

EXHIBIT A

PRIORITIES
Priorities	Actions	Board Leads
Marketing & Communications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Created a Marketing & Communications (MARCOM) team of Jen Abbott, Frieda Dweck, Karen Manning, and Lisa Mirable. • Create a marketing and communication plan to improve our outreach, knowledge of our positions, events and educational opportunities • Updating our handbook • Outreach to other civic organizations in order to identify and develop alignment and synergies between LWVN and other groups • Hold social and educational events for current & potential members • Integrate our programming, e.g. Topic Meetings, and League Presents • Leverage the City's new welcome program 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jen Abbott • Frieda Dweck • Karen Manning • Lisa Mirable
100 th Anniversary of the 19 th Amendment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Work with the city to establish a coalition to celebrate the 100th anniversary • To coordinate our LWVN activities , e.g. Civics Bee, Topic Meetings, League Presents, a fundraiser etc. around the anniversary. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ellen Grody • Marcia Johnson
Voter Service	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hold candidate forums • Promote our non-partisan process • Create a Voter Guide 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sue Flicop • Sharyn Roberts
Zoning & Land Use	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Re-establish a committee to update the League's position on zoning & affordable housing. • Advocate for affordable housing and zoning reform in Newton 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Marcia Johnson • Josephine McNeil
Increased Transparency in Government	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Engage the council and school committee in a dialogue regarding increasing transparency • Hold meetings with the Council & School Committee leadership • Get involved in the re-design of the city's website • Provide more information about Council & School Committee processes and actions • Be regular observers of meetings 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sue Flicop
Administration	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Review our by-laws • Review our member renewal process • Help to facilitate the implementation of a student scholarship process 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jen Abbott • Bonnie Carter • Frieda Dweck • Karen Manning • Lisa Mirable

EXHIBIT B

ACCOMPLISHMENTS
Priorities	Accomplishments
Marketing & Communications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We are developing a marketing & communication plan and have increased our presence on Facebook, Newton Patch, and Village 14. Many thanks to the MARCOM team. We have connected with other Leagues and local civic organizations, e.g. Newton Civic Action Forum, Green Newton, Mothers Out Front, Newton Conservators, 350 MASS, Newton Council on Aging, and the Newton-Needham Regional Chamber in order to find synergies, co-sponsor/promote educational and non-partisan events. Our September Topic Meeting was Jed Shugerman “Is Our Constitution Holding Up to the Test of Time in 2019?” In November Middlesex Sheriff will be speaking at the Angier Elementary School. Thank you to Frieda Dweck for all of her efforts with organizing these events. Thank you to Alice Donisi-Feehan for reaching out to the Sheriff The League Presents: An Overview of LWVN [S. Flicop & M. Johnson]; Introduction to Holly Ryan, an uncontested candidate for Ward 8 Councilor. Thank you to Susan Filcop and Maureen Reilly Meagher for their work on our NewTV shows.
100 th Anniversary of the 19 th Amendment	   The LWVN is taking a leadership role in the formation and programming of the Women’s Right-to-Vote Coalition of Newton. Thank you to Ellen Grody and Marcia Johnson Our Voter Service team along with the Mayor is promoting the Suffragists
Voter Service Sue Flicop Sharyn Roberts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Our long-standing Voter Service team facilitated nine City Council Candidate Forums. Thank you to LWVN members who helped with question sorting, timing the forums, and greeting the candidates. We also want to thank our colleagues in neighboring Leagues for moderating the forums. Provided all candidates for city office with an opportunity to complete our Voters Guide Co-sponsored, along with Green Newton, Mothers Out Front, Newton Conservators, Newton Council on Aging and the Newton-Needham Regional Chamber, Saturday Night at the Races. Thank you to Bonnie Carter, Lucia Dolan, Sue Flicop, and Sharyn Roberts for taking the lead on this new event. Sharyn and a strong team of volunteers continue to register voters at our high schools, village days, farmers’ markets and other events across the city.