VOTING IS VOICE: WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE AND BEYOND

October 20, 7-8:30 pm
Sponsored by:

One hundred years ago, the 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution was ratified, affirming women's right to vote. On this milestone anniversary, this panel of accomplished women will reflect on why elections, voting and civic engagement matter so much, considering both the success and shortcomings of the suffrage movement; the empowerment of new voters today; and what future work remains to ensure all citizens can and do exercise their voting rights. This will be a valuable experience for everyone concerned about the importance of our voting system and the voice it provides us all.

PRESENTERS & PANELISTS:

Senator Sonia Chang-Diaz, MA State Senator, 2nd Suffolk District (panelist)

Elizabeth Foster-Nolan, Director of the League of Women Voters of Massachusetts (presenter)

Lori Lander, Artist and Community Activist. Co-founder, Many Helping Hands 365, Board Member, Cambridge Community Foundation (panelist)

Layli Maparyan, Ph.D, Executive Director, Wellesley Centers for Women (panel moderator)

Susan Sidel, Member and Volunteer, The Philanthropy Connection (presenter)

Melanie Torres, Interim Executive Director, Project Citizenship (presenter)

Susan Ware, Honorary Women's Suffrage Centennial Historian at the Schlesinger Library, Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study (panelist)
